

Hollywood already has enough of a monopoly and influence on how the public accesses information, entertainment, goods and services. They also have too strong an influence on public choice and voice. I and my family strongly oppose the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking #02-230, because it would make it illegal for ordinary citizens to own fully functional digital television devices. Stop dumbing down the American public!